

29th National Debate Tournament

Hosted by the University of the Pacific

Stockton, California

April 18-21, 1975

Sponsored by the American Forensic Association and the Ford Motor Company Fund

TO COACHES AND DEBATERS OF THE 1975 NATIONAL DEBATE TOURNAMENT:

The University of the Pacific is proud and happy to host the 1975 National Debate Tournament and to welcome all of you who are participating in it. We have a splendid tradition of debate at our own University and are very pleased to have the first National Tournament ever held on the West Coast conducted on our campus.

Debating is one of the most valuable experiences in which a student can engage and lessons are learned from forensics which are valuable throughout one's life regardless of the career pursued. We wish each of you success in your participation in this Tournament and hope you will find your stay with us to be enjoyable and meaningful. Welcome to Pacific!

Yours very sincerely,

President
University of the Pacific

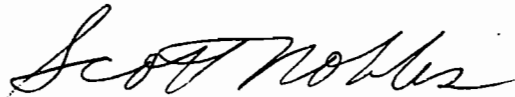

To All Participants in the 29th National Debate Tournament:

On behalf of the American Forensic Association, it is my pleasure to congratulate all participants in this year's NDT. As debaters, you have demonstrated excellence in the valued skills of thinking and communicating. As teachers of qualifying students, you have demonstrated your ability to provide encouragement, guidance, and learning opportunities for your students. As guest judges, you have been honored by the highest confidence of your colleagues in the forensic community.

The American Forensic Association also wishes to join debaters, teachers, and judges in thanking those people whose interest and efforts have made this tournament possible and who will share responsibility for its expected success. AFA is especially grateful to Professor Annabel Hagood, Chairperson of the NDT Board of Trustees; to John DeBross, Chairperson of the NDT Committee; to Professor Michael Hazen, NDT Tournament Director, and his staff; to Professor Paul Winters, Tournament Host; and to all members of NDT district committees. We are also deeply grateful to the University of the Pacific for its generous commitment of facilities, financial resources, and personnel, and to the Ford Motor Company for recognizing the value of intercollegiate debate through its very generous financial support.

From its beginning at the U. S. Military Academy in 1947 to this twenty-ninth tournament of 1975, the NDT has represented and enhanced the best efforts of the forensic community. The American Forensic Association congratulates all participants and wishes you continuing success.

Sincerely,

Scott Nobles, President
American Forensic Association

Ford Motor Company Fund extends hearty congratulations and welcome to all participants in the 1975 National Debate Tournament.

This is the third year in which we have been privileged to be associated with this prestigious event. Best wishes for a most successful tournament.

National Debate Tournament: 1975

Resolved: That the Power of the Presidency Should be Significantly Curtailed.

The Twenty-Ninth National Debate Tournament is sponsored by the American Forensic Association and the Ford Motor Company (Ford Fund). District and National committees have expended much time and effort to insure that the tournament reflects the highest quality debating throughout the nation.

Sixteen teams were selected at-large by the National Debate Tournament committee on the basis of outstanding records prior to the District tournaments. Thirty-seven teams representing the nine Districts were invited on the basis of their superior debating in District tournaments. Nine additional teams were selected by the National Committee on an at-large basis after the District tournaments.

Guest judges, recommended by their District committees and selected by the tournament director, join coach-judges accompanying the debate teams to staff three-man judging panels in each round. The criticism and evaluation thus reflects the best balance and highest standards possible.

The first round is matched on a pre-set schedule based upon the order in which teams qualified for the tournament. All other rounds are paired on the basis of like records. Any team could be paired against any other team, and any judge could hear any team except his own. On the basis of records in the eight preliminary rounds, the top sixteen teams are selected by win-loss record, total ballots, and total adjusted speaker points for elimination round competition which culminates in the selection of the national championship debate team.

Officials of the National Debate Tournament and the members of the American Forensic Association are grateful to the Ford Motor Company for the generous grant which helped make this tournament possible. This support is recognized in the Ford Motor Fund Awards for the First and Second Speakers of the Tournament. We are also grateful to Sigurd S. Larmon for donating the rotating Larmon trophy, emblematic of the national debate championship, and to Mr. and Mrs. George Walker for donating the rotating second-place Walker Memorial Trophy.

We are most grateful to Dr. Paul Winters and the University of the Pacific debaters, our tournament hosts, for their cooperation and assistance in making the numerous tournament arrangements. And finally, we are indebted to President Stanley E. McCaffrey, Financial Vice-President Robert Winterberg, Chairman of the Communication Arts Department, Donald Duns, and the University of the Pacific for their support of this tournament. Without these friends of debate, the Twenty-Ninth National Debate Tournament could not have taken place.
