OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

April 16, 1970

To All Participants in the 24th National Debate Tournament

Debate has always been one of the extracurricular fields of endeavor which provide exceptionally valuable training closely related to course work and later career. It is now increasingly recognized as an activity which lends deserved distinction to those competitors who excel in debate and to their institutions.

The University of Houston is pleased and honored to have been chosen as host campus for the 1970 National Debate Tournament. We congratulate the competing teams and institutions, and welcome all participants, along with members of the NDT Committee of the American Forensic Association, judges, coaches and others in attendance.

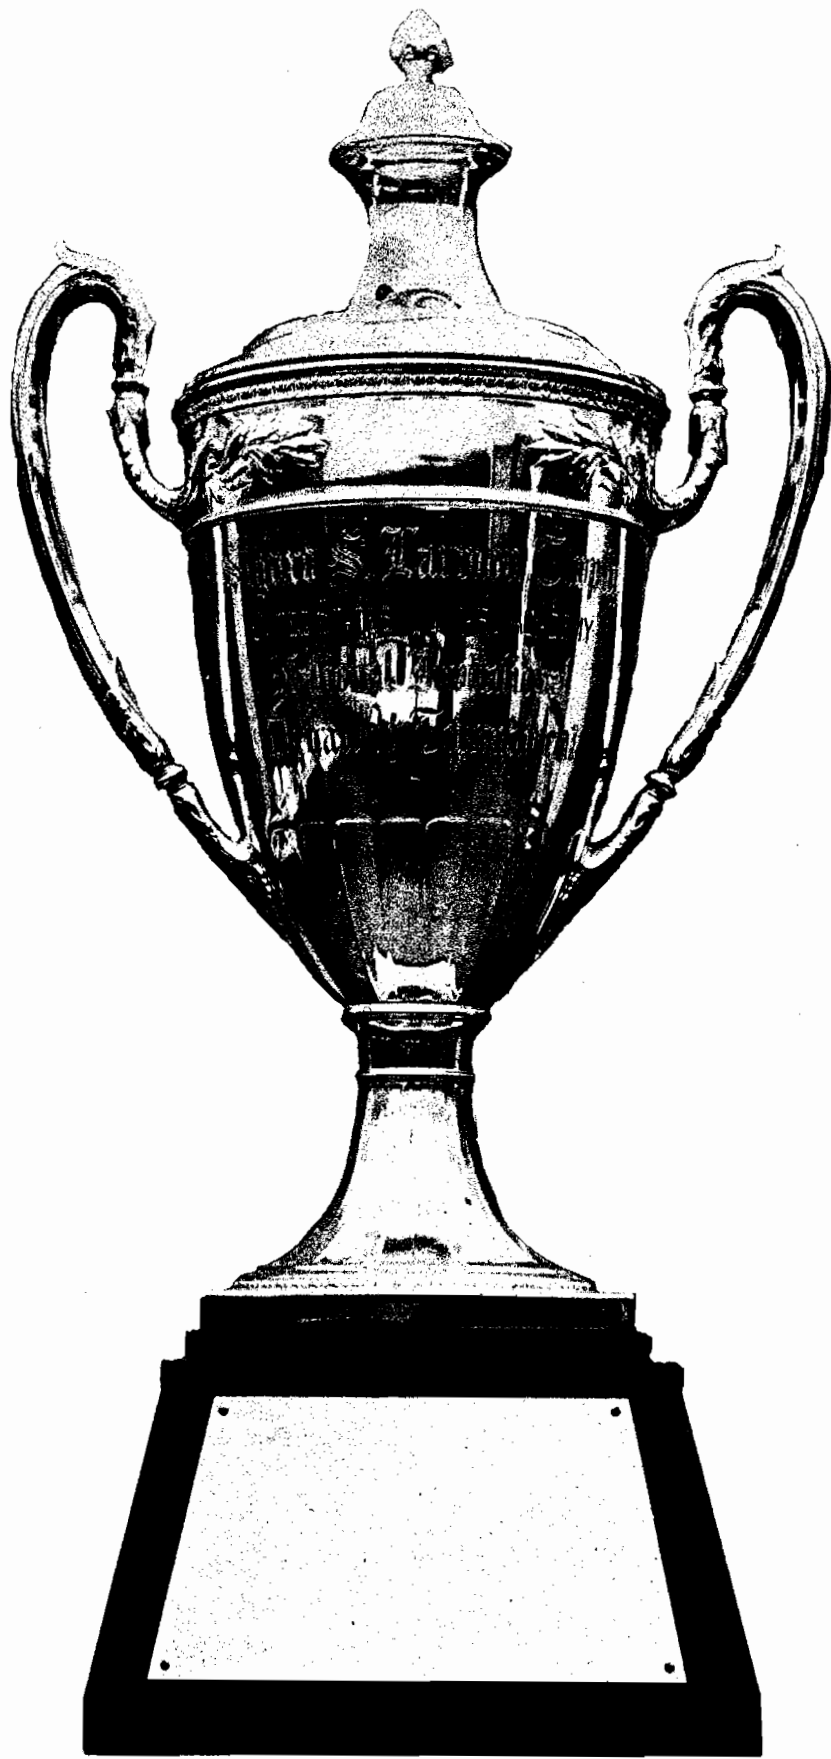

I hope that while you are in Houston you will have the opportunity to visit our rapidly-growing city and to become acquainted with the University. Good luck to each of you, and may the hardest working, most persuasive, most logical and most articulate win!

Very sincerely yours,

Philip G. Hoffman
President

The Sigurd S. Larmon Trophy awarded each year to the Champion of the National Debate Tournament. The trophy was donated by Mr. Larmon.

15 April 1970

It is with genuine pleasure that I extend a hearty welcome to the student participants, faculty coaches, and guest judges of the Twenty-Fourth National Debate Tournament. My personal congratulations to the debaters who earned the right to take part in this significant event; without question you are among the nation's best college students, and the fact that you are here means your stature as an intercollegiate debater is of the highest.

The American Forensic Association is grateful to the University of Houston, whose generous hospitality made this tournament possible. Willingness to host a national conclave of this magnitude clearly demonstrates a strong belief in the values of intercollegiate debating. The University of Houston has provided excellent facilities as well as granting a substantial subsidy to help defray tournament costs. William English and his dedicated staff have given freely of their time and energies to plan and execute local arrangements.

Much of the credit for the success of this tournament goes to the several District Chairmen and the members of their respective committees. These persons have arranged the many preliminary debates necessary to refine the present competition.

Thanks are also extended to Herbert James, Chairman of The National Debate Tournament Board of Trustees, and his colleagues for valuable advice. Thomas McClain, Chairman of The National Tournament Committee, and his co-workers likewise deserve appreciation for countless hours developing policies and procedures necessary for effective operation of the tournament. David Matheny, as tournament director, performed his tasks well and certainly deserves a round of applause.

May the many opportunities to exchange ideas afforded here enrich the lives of us all. The complex issues inherent in revenue sharing affect every United States citizen. We are fortunate in having the intercollegiate elite of the nation's forensics community to devote so much effort to a serious analysis of the resolution.

Gifford Blyton, President
American Forensic Association

Permanent trophies are awarded to the top four teams in the tournament. Hamilton Electric watches are awarded to the members of the first and second place teams and to the top two speakers in the preliminary rounds. Revere Bowls are presented to the other eight top speakers in the preliminary rounds.

NATIONAL DEBATE TOURNAMENT: 1970

The Twenty-Fourth National Debate Tournament is sponsored this year by the American Forensic Association. District and National Committees have worked hard to make this tournament the highest quality tournament in the nation.

To insure top competition, qualifying tournaments in eight districts determined thirty-eight of the forty-six participating teams. The eight best teams not qualifying at their district tournaments (as determined by the voting of the District Chairmen and A.F.A. Representatives) were extended at-large invitations.

Three judges will be assigned to each round. Insofar as will be possible, you will be judged by no one from your district, or the district of your opponents.

This year we will return to the power-matching system used in earlier years. After a first round of randomly matched inter-district competition, all other rounds will be paired on the basis of like records. This year, for the first time, teams from the same district will meet in the power-matched rounds if their records so dictate. On the basis of records in the eight preliminary rounds, the top sixteen teams will be selected by win-loss record, total ballots and total speaker points for elimination round competition culminating in the selection of the national championship debate team.

The N.D.T. and the A.F.A. are grateful to the Hamilton Watch Company of Lancaster, Pennsylvania, for the Hamilton Awards: two electric wrist watches for the top two speakers in the preliminary rounds, and four electric wrist watches for the four speakers in the final debate; to Sigurd S. Larmon for donating the first-place rotating Larmon Trophy; to Mr. and Mrs. George Walker for donating the second-place Walker Memorial Trophy; and to Robert Shrum, Boston College, Jack Lynch, St. Anselms College and Captain Terry Goggin of West Point for their help in gathering information for the tournament booklet.

Finally, we are most grateful to Bill English, our tournament host, for his cooperation and assistance in making the numerous arrangements necessary for this tournament and to the University of Houston for its substantial financial support of the tournament.

DEBATE PROCEDURE AND INSTRUCTIONS

The American Forensic Association Form C debate ballot will be used for all debates. Judges are requested to follow the following instructions:

1. Assign a speaker rating to each speaker. This speaker rating need not be a total of checked items (analysis, reasoning, etc.), but should follow the following guidelines:
 - 25-30 = superior
 - 19-24 = excellent
 - 13-18 = average
 - 7-12 = fair
 - 1- 6 = poor
2. Do not announce any decision or reveal any decision to any person during the preliminary rounds of the tournament.
3. Seal your ballot and give it to the timekeeper after the round is completed. The timekeeper will return the ballot to tournament headquarters for you. Because the tournament is power-matched, and because limited time is available for this power-matching, please return your ballot to the timekeeper within five minutes of the time the round is completed. Lengthy critiques may be written independent of the ballot and turned in to tournament headquarters later.
4. Please, please be sure that the names of the competing teams, the names of the debaters, the decision, and your name as the judge appear on the ballot.

Each round of debate begins in the University Center at the time indicated. Debate team pairings and judging assignments will be announced according to lettered stations. As soon as the name of a debate team or judge is announced, that debate team or judge should report to the lettered station. The timekeeper should have the group leave for the appropriate room and start the debate as soon as all debaters and judges are present. Written notes on a debate are to be taken by no person other than the participating debaters and judges. Otherwise, observers are welcome to hear any debates during the tournament.

The preliminary rounds of debate will be power-matched as in previous years. In general, the following criteria will govern team matchings in the eight preliminary rounds:

1. No team debates the same team twice.
2. Teams debate four affirmative and four negative rounds, but do not necessarily alternate sides from round to round.
3. Teams are matched on a win-loss record, ballots, and speaker points.

The elimination rounds of the tournament will pair teams according to the following scheme: (numbers below represent rank in preliminary rounds)

Octafinals: 1-16, 2-15, 3-14, 4-13, 5-12, 6-11, 7-10, 8-9

Quarterfinals: winner of 1-16 vs. 8-9, of 2-15 vs. 7-10, of 3-14 vs. 6-11, and of 4-13 vs. 5-12

Semifinals: winner of 1-16-8-9 vs. 4-13-5-12 and of 2-15-7-10 vs. 3-14-6-11 with survivors meeting in the Finals.

No results (ballots) will be released until after 1 PM on Sunday. All judges are expected to be available for all rounds of debate through Sunday noon.

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOUSING, MEALS, AND DEBATES

Housing

Participants in the National Debate Tournament will be housed in the Astroworld Hotel. Reservations will be made by the University of Houston, and each school will be responsible for paying their own bill. Guest judges will be given a check to cover the cost of their housing. Reservations will be made for Thursday, Friday, and Saturday evenings (April 16, 17, and 18) only, unless otherwise specified. Rates are figured on the assumption that guest judges and coaches will share a room.

Meals

Six meals are included for debaters, coaches, and guest judges in the registration fee. Thursday and Friday evening buffets will be served at the Astroworld Hotel. Friday noon, Saturday noon, and Saturday evening meals will be served in the Houston Room of the University Center. Sunday noon, the meal will be served in the University Center Cafeteria.

Debates

Most of the preliminary rounds will be in the University Center. Two debates each round will be held in Cullen Hall. All of the elimination rounds on Sunday will be held in the Bates College of Law. Debates will be announced at the times indicated on the schedule in the Houston Room of the Center. All debaters, coaches, and judges should report to the Houston Room at the time indicated for each round to begin.

SPECIAL NOTE: Coaches and guest judges are expected to be available for all rounds of debate through Sunday noon. It is hoped, of course, particularly in the case of guest judges, that judges will remain through all elimination rounds. No tournament results (ballots) will be released prior to the Semi-final debate rounds.
