

31ST NATIONAL DEBATE TOURNAMENT

Hosted by:
SOUTHWEST MISSOURI
STATE UNIVERSITY

April 15 to 18, 1977

THE NATIONAL DEBATE TOURNAMENT

The National Debate Tournament began at the United States Military Academy in 1947. The NDT was organized and run by West Point for its first twenty years. In the early years of the tournament, the rules were determined by West Point administration in consultation with such debate coaches as A. Craig Baird of Iowa, G. M. Musgrave of Des Moines, Alan Nichols of Southern California, E. R. Nichols of Redlands, and Joseph O'Brien of Pennsylvania State. At the first tournament in 1947, twenty-nine colleges participated in five "seeding" rounds and four elimination rounds over a three day period. Some of the primary features of the tournament were that no school in the seeding rounds would meet a school within five hundred miles of it and no coach would judge a school from his own district. Many traditions were started at West Point that year, including: the "big board," announcement of round pairings, cadet escorts, the gathering of teams meeting each other under the school banner of the affirmative team, and team signs in the rooms.

In 1967, the National Debate Tournament entered a new era as the American Forensics Association assumed responsibility for the Tournament. With this new leadership, the NDT moved from West Point and has been hosted by a different school each year since. The direct control of the tournament became the responsibility of a national committee elected by those schools supporting the tournament. Over the years, the tournament has expanded to sixty-two teams with various procedures used for their selection.

In the early days of the tournament, teams were selected by the district nominating committees. This later was replaced by some form of qualifying tournament in most districts. In recent years certain large tournaments were designated as national qualifiers but today we rely on a combination of district tournaments and at large bids. As debate has developed in the last ten years, other refinements have been added to the tournament including the ten minute rule, elaborate striking procedures, judging qualifications and critiques of the final round.

One key element of the success of the National Debate Tournament has been the support of past participants and community leaders. The early contributions of the United State Military Academy are exemplified by George Walker for whom the permanent second place Walker Memorial Trophy is named. Walker was an excellent debater for West Point and supported the tournament until his untimely death in 1958. The support of Professional men is typified by Sigurd S. Larmon for whom the permanent first place trophy is named. Mr. Larmon's generous support of the National Debate Tournament has been one of the key reasons why the tournament has survived. In recent years financial grants from the Ford Motor Company have made it possible for the tournament to prosper.

Perhaps the most important aspect of the National Debate Tournament through the years has been the people associated with it. Many key people in the speech discipline, legal profession and other fields have received communicative and argumentative training from debate and most have displayed these skills in the National Debate Tournament. These people and those in the future like them, are the best evidence of the value of our activity.

TO COACHES AND DEBATERS OF THE 1977 NATIONAL DEBATE TOURNAMENT:

We are pleased to know that the National Debate Tournament for the spring of 1977 will be held on our campus. For many years our institution has been heavily involved in student debate. It is a long and a strong tradition on our campus.

We are aware of the fact that many of America's leaders have emerged from intercollegiate debate programs. We are pleased, therefore, not only to have been involved with debate for so many years, but we are also pleased to know that some of America's future leaders will be on our campus for this particular event.

Welcome to our campus.

Sincerely yours,

TOURNAMENT:

It is a genuine pleasure for me to congratulate all participants in the 1977 National Debate Tournament. The one hundred twenty-four debaters present in Springfield, Missouri this weekend are here as a result of hundreds of hours of work. By qualifying for this event you have brought significant honor to your academic institution. But above all you have gained valuable skills which will be of benefit during the rest of your life.

The National Debate Tournament represents the most visible project of the American Forensic Association. This tournament is the result of the work of many persons. AFA is especially grateful to Dr. Lucy M. Keele, Chairperson of the NDT Board of Trustees; to Professor Chester Gibson, Chairperson of the NDT Committee; to Dr. Michael Hazen, NDT Tournament Director, and his excellent staff; to Professor Rita Flaningam, Tournament Host, District III and to all members of the nine NDT District Committees. We are deeply grateful to the administration of Southwest Missouri State, including Dean Holt Spicer, for a generous commitment of facilities, financial resources, and personnel, and to the Ford Motor Company for its continuing recognition of the value of intercollegiate debate through its financial support.

Immediately after Round I on Friday, we hope each one of you will join us for the AFA Reception Honoring Former NDT Participants. This is our way of saying congratulations to you and all persons who have been a part of the thirty-one year history of the National Debate Tournament.

Sincerely yours,

James F. Weaver, President
American Forensic Association

Congratulations from Ford Motor Company Fund to all participants in the 1977 National Debate Tournament.

It is a distinct pleasure for us to be identified with an event in which every person present has already demonstrated significant achievement.

Best wishes for a very successful tournament.

RESOLVED: THAT THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT SHOULD SIGNIFICANTLY STRENGTHEN THE GUARANTEE OF CONSUMER PRODUCT SAFETY REQUIRED OF MANUFACTURERS

The Thirty-first National Debate Tournament is sponsored by the American Forensic Association and the Ford Motor Company Fund. District and national committees have expended much time and effort to insure that the tournament reflects the highest quality debating throughout the nation.

Fifteen teams were selected at-large by the National Debate Tournament committee on the basis of outstanding records prior to the District tournaments. Thirty-seven teams representing the nine Districts were invited on the basis of their superior debating in District tournaments. Ten additional teams were selected by the National Committee on an at-large basis after the District tournaments.

Guest judges, recommended by their District committees and selected by the tournament director, join coaches-judges accompanying the debate teams to staff three-man judging panels in each round. The criticism and evaluation thus reflects the best balance and highest standards possible.

The first round is matched on a pre-set schedule based upon the order in which teams qualified for the tournament. All other odd numbered rounds are paired on the basis of direct power (high records meeting high records). All even numbered rounds are paired on the basis of high-low records within brackets. Any team could be paired against any other team, and any judge could hear any team except his own. On the basis of records in the eight preliminary rounds, the top sixteen teams are selected by win-loss records, total ballots, and total adjusted speaker points for elimination round competition which culminates in the selection of the national championship debate team. Individual speakers are recognized after the eight rounds of preliminary competition. Speaker awards are given on the basis of adjusted speaker points with high-lows being dropped up to four times.

Officials of the National Debate Tournament and the members of the American Forensic Association are grateful to the Ford Motor Company Fund for the generous grant which helped make this tournament possible. This support is recognized in the Ford Motor Fund Awards for the First and Second Speakers of the Tournament. We are also grateful to Sigurd S. Larmon for donating the rotating Larmon trophy, emblematic of the national debate championship, and to Mr. and Mrs. George Walker for donating the rotating second-place Walker Memorial Trophy.

We are most grateful to Holt V. Spicer, Carl Flaningam, Rita Rice Flaningam, The SMSU Debaters, and District Three, our tournament hosts, for their cooperation and assistance in making tournament arrangements. And finally, we are indebted to Dr. Duane Meyer, President of Southwest Missouri State University; Dr. Robert Gilmore, Provost and Dean of Facilities at SMSU; and Dr. Robert Bradley, Head, Department of Speech and Theatre at SMSU. Without their gracious support this tournament could not take place.
