Date: April 2, 1992

On behalf of all my colleagues, I extend a warm welcome to the Miami University campus. We are delighted to have you with us for this year's National Debate Tournament.

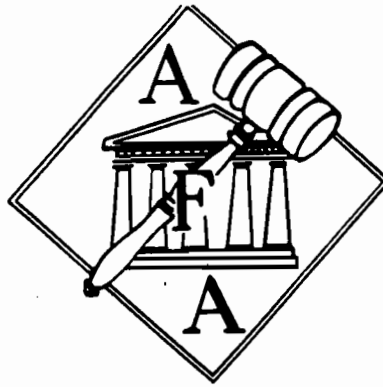

All of you, debaters and coaches alike, have worked hard to get here, and you are to be congratulated for your achievements to date. You face a real challenge in the rigorous competition of the next several days. Although only one can emerge as national champion, all of you will gain immeasurably from your tournament experiences.

Again, welcome to Miami. I wish for you a pleasant stay and success in the tournament competition.

April 1992

To those participating in the National Debate Tournament:

Welcome to the 46th National Debate Tournament. The American Forensic Association takes pride in this tournament which we have sponsored for the past quarter century. To those students who have qualified to compete at this tournament, congratulations: we recognize the talent and the hard work you have devoted to intercollegiate debate. To their coaches, the forensic educators who have aided this achievement, we acknowledge the significance of your contribution, both to your own students and to our professional field.

This is the year when our nation is celebrating the bicentennial of the Bill of Rights. The First Amendment right of free speech, guaranteed two hundred years ago with a simplicity and universality which many people ignore or reject today, is epitomized by the intercollegiate debate activity. Debate—the clash of ideas, the respect for opposing viewpoints, the careful and responsible analysis of reasoning and evidence—is the time-honored method for resolving disputes and for making decisions in a democratic society. Whether or not we accept the idealistic concept of a free and open marketplace of ideas, a concept on which the First Amendment is based, we cannot escape the practical and philosophical conclusion that debate without restriction is more likely to lead the citizens of a democratic society toward Truth than is its opposite, the suppression of viewpoints by those who believe they already possess the Truth.

This tournament is taking place because of the hard work of dozens of members of the American Forensic Association: the National Debate Tournament Committee and the District Committees, the Board of Trustees, the Tournament Director and staff, and our hosts at Miami University of Ohio. To all of you, I express the very sincere thanks of the membership of the American Forensic Association for contributing to a tradition of rewarding excellence in intercollegiate debate.

Yours sincerely,

The NDT Board of Trustees is pleased to welcome you to the 46th National Debate Tournament. You join a long line of distinguished participants at NDT. Your accomplishments in Debate throughout this year make you a worthy entrant to this line. TO ALL THE DEBATERS, COACHES, JUDGES AND ADMINISTRATION OFFICIALS
OF THE 1992 NATIONAL DEBATE TOURNAMENT:

It is a singular pleasure for me to welcome all of you to Miami University, your host for the 46th National Debate Tournament. The Department of Communication, which it has been my pleasure to chair for the past eleven years, is the host department and many of its members are contributing to the needed services for this event.

Everyone in attendance at this tournament has already reached a degree of excellence or you would not be here. Having been an undergraduate debater, I know that it is hard to accept the fact that everybody who attends this tournament is a winner when only one first-place trophy will be awarded. However, this is the culmination of a winning year for all of you and you should be proud of this achievement.

Finally, please indulge me in a bit of nostalgia. Forty-five years ago, it was my pleasure to be in the winner's circle, along with my colleague Scott Nobles, and to receive the first awarding of the Larmon Trophy from General Maxwell Taylor of the United States Military Academy at West Point. Though I entered the field of academe and forensics as a second career, I have followed the progress of this tournament from its beginning. It was our pleasure to host this event in 1989 and one of the high moments of my career is being able to co-host this tournament as one of my final official acts as Chair of this Department at Miami University. At five p.m. on Friday, August 28, I will retire and welcome the other co-host of this tournament, Jack Rhodes, as the new Chair of the Department of Communication.

Godspeed,

1992 NDT TOURNAMENT INFORMATION

COPY SERVICES: Hamilton: PIP about six blocks west of the Hamiltonian. Ask for specific directions at the hotel desk.

Middletown: Services are available at the Towne Mall, Meijer's, and other locations. Ask at the Holiday Inn desk.

Oxford: There is a coin-operated machine in the Shriver Center. Also: Oxford Copy Shop & Typing Pool, 10 South Poplar (523-3636; off High Street behind Attractions Restaurant), and Kinko's, 33 East High (523-1995, near Attractions, on High Street)

LIBRARY SERVICES: Hamilton: Lane Public Library, North 3rd and Buckeye (about five blocks northeast of Hamiltonian).

Oxford: Miami University's King Library, located on the west side of campus, and the Lane Public Library-Oxford Branch, 15 South College Avenue.

Cincinnati: University of Cincinnati College of Law Library (ask for directions).

DRIVING TIME AND DIRECTIONS: An area map is included in this booklet, with the recommended routes highlighted between major points. Approximate driving times are:

Hamilton to Shriver Center.....	25 minutes
Middletown to Shriver Center.....	35 minutes
Hamiltonian to Holiday Inn.....	15 minutes

ARRIVING AT THE MIAMI CAMPUS ON FRIDAY: As you arrive at the Shriver Center, it is important that you NOT unload your evidence from your vehicle. Only the announcements and continental breakfast will be held in the Shriver Center Friday morning. You will be (unfortunately) spread out all over campus for the 9:00 a.m. round. Park your vehicle and go to Shriver's Multi-Purpose room on the main floor. There you will find a continental breakfast and announcements. After the announcements, you may drive to your rooms. Park anywhere on campus except tow-away zones, fire hydrants, or handicapped zones. If you get a ticket in a regular campus lot, bring it to Dr. Rhodes. We cannot, however, adjust tickets from metered parking or those issued by the City of Oxford.

'NO SMOKING' POLICY: Miami is phasing in a complete campus ban on smoking effective 1 January 1993. For the NDT we are under severe restrictions already. There will be no smoking in Shriver Center. There will be no smoking in classrooms. Hallways are permissible, and hall ashtrays are currently provided. We ask for your serious and sustained co-operation with this policy.

COACHES' PARTY: We are not having nightly coaches' parties this year because many people will not be in the tournament hotel. We will provide one most excellent party, however, on Friday night at the Hamiltonian (from 9:30 p.m. to midnight). We invite all coaches and guest judges to be our guests at that time. Shuttle service will be provided between the Hamiltonian and Holiday Inn on the following schedule:

Leave Middletown Holiday Inn: 9:30 p.m., 10:30 p.m., and 11:30 p.m.

Leave the Hamiltonian for Middletown at: 10:00 p.m., 11:00 p.m., and 12 midnight

TEAM/COACH PHOTOGRAPHS: These will be taken at the west end of the Multi-Purpose Room in front of the "Big Board," after round five on Saturday. We will begin taking photographs at 3:30 p.m., during the District Five reception.

WESTERN POLICY CAUCUS COACHES' LUNCHEON: Dr. George Ziegelmueller will preside at a luncheon meeting of Western Policy Debate Coaches. Please gather at 11:45 a.m. on Friday in the 1809 Room, east of the Multi-Purpose Room on the main floor of Shriver. Advise the hostess that you are with the Ziegelmueller party in the "College Corner Room."

PURCHASE OF MEAL TICKETS: We will be forced to require that all attendees at the banquet, picnic, and Sunday evening buffet have tickets. Your entry fee entitles you to meal tickets for 2 debaters and 2 coaches. If you need additional tickets beyond that ratio, the package for all three meals is $50.00. Individual prices: Thursday Banquet = $25.00; Friday picnic = $10.00; Sunday buffet = $15.00. Ticket sales will close two hours before each event with no exceptions.

HAMILTON AND MIDDLETOWN RESTAURANTS

Hamilton (near the Hamiltonian):

Walk south of the hotel one block and turn left onto High Street. Walk east, and in the second block you will find Pedro's Mexican Restaurant, the Country Cupboard, and Skyline Chili. Walk another block or so east to McDonalds.

In the hotel is the restaurant which many consider Hamilton's finest, Alexander's. Reservations are suggested for dinner in Alexander's on Friday or Saturday nights. It is quite good and not very expensive.

Hamilton (on the routes toward Oxford):

Here you will find most of the fast food establishments including KFC, Burger King, Sisters Fried Chicken, Taco Bell, Frisch's, and Ponderosa. A satisfactory "sit down" meal is provided at Bill Knapp's.

Middletown:

Middletown has some good restaurants. Locations are a bit obscure; so ask Dr. Rhodes for directions to Schiavone's, The Meadows, or The Manchester.

Across the interstate from the Holiday Inn of Middletown there is a large cluster of acceptable restaurants, including Bill Knapp's, Ponderosa, Bob Evans, and Hardee's. Probably the best of these is Mark Pi's China Gate, a highly satisfactory Chinese restaurant with full lounge facilities.

On the same side of the highway as the hotel is McDonald's, and the Holiday Inn Coffee Shop is in the hotel itself.
