Dear Students, Coaches, and Guests at the Forty-ninth Annual National Debate Tournament:

Welcome to the campus of West Georgia College for the second time in the forty-nine year history of this distinguished tournament. Since the origin of this tournament in 1947 at the United States Military Academy, you have been hosted by an array of outstanding educational institutions. West Georgia College hosted the tournament in 1990, and we are pleased to have been selected to host the tournament again in 1995.

Your commitment to this activity, the personal and professional sacrifices that are made to achieve excellence, and the distinguished record of alumni of intercollegiate debate is a shining example of the best in our educational system.

We have a pleasant surprise in store for you, one that will be announced at the opening banquet of the 1995 National Debate Tournament. I hesitate to provide details lest I spoil your surprise; however, let me say that it is designed to honor all of you, but particularly the coaches who give so much to the tournament.

Welcome to our campus and to Carrollton. Good luck in your quest for the National Championship.

Sincerely,

Beheruz N. Sethna, Ph.D.

President

Professor of Marketing and Business Information Systems

DR. BEHERUZ SETHNA, PRESIDENT
WEST GEORGIA COLLEGE

THE NATIONAL DEBATE TOURNAMENT

The National Debate Tournament began at the United States Military Academy in 1947. It was organized and conducted by the academy at West Point for its first twenty years. Initial tournament rules were determined by the West Point Administration in consultation with such debate coaches as A. Craig Baird of the University of Iowa, G.M. Musgrave of Des Moines, Alan Nichols of USC, E.R. Nichols of the University of Redlands, and Joseph O'Brien of Pennsylvania State University.

At the first tournament in 1947, twenty-nine colleges participated in five "seeding" rounds and four elimination rounds over a three day period. Some of the features of the tournament were that no school would meet a school within five hundred miles of itself during the seeding rounds and that no coach would judge a school from his or her own district. Many traditions were started at West Point that year, some of which still remain today: the "big board", oral announcement of round pairings, cadet escorts for each team, teams for each debate meeting under the banner of the affirmative team, and team signs in the rooms.

In 1967, the National Debate Tournament entered a new era as the American Forensic Association, the national professional organization of forensics educators, assumed responsibility for the tournament. The NDT was moved from West Point and has been hosted by a different school every year since, although two schools (West Georgia and Miami University of Ohio) have hosted it twice. Control of the tournament became the responsibility of a national committee elected by those schools supporting the tournament. As debate has developed in recent years other refinements have been added to the tournament: the ten-minute preparation time rule, elaborate procedures for assigning judges, judge qualifications and published critiques of the final debate.

Over the years, the tournament has expanded in size, with various procedures used for selecting the participants. In the early days, teams were chosen by district nominating committees. This method was replaced by some form of qualifying tournaments in most districts. For the first twenty years of NDT competition the tournament host and previous year's winner received automatic invitations. Post-district at-large bids were initiated in 1968 and pre-district bids in 1971. Since 1970, it has been possible for a school to qualify as many as two teams for the NDT. This year seventy-four teams participated in the NDT. Beginning in 1992, a limited number of third teams from a school were able to qualify.

The Forty-Ninth National Debate Tournament was sponsored by the American Forensic Association with support from the Ford Motor Company Fund. The NDT is also indebted to Mr. Sigurd S. Larmon (1891-1987) for donating the rotating Larmon Trophy, emblematic of the national debate championship; to Mr. and Mrs. George Walker for donating the rotating second-place Walker Memorial Trophy in memory of their son; to Mr. Robert Feldhake, top speaker in the 1976 NDT and now an attorney in Los Angeles for donating the Wayne Brockriede Top Speaker Award; to District IX for donating the rotating Top Speaker Trophy; and to the Copeland Family for donating the Rex Copeland First Team At Large Trophy.

In 1995 a new award was announced for the coach of the winning team. It is the Ovid R. Davis/West Georgia College Championship Coach Award. The award was a gift from Ovid R. Davis, Senior Vice President for Public Relations with Coca Cola.

District and national committees expended considerable time and effort to insure that the tournament reflects the highest quality debating throughout the nation. Sixteen teams were selected at-large by the National Debate Tournament Committee on the basis of outstanding records prior to the District Tournaments. Forty-six teams representing the nine Districts were invited on the basis of their superior debating in District tournaments. Ten additional teams were selected by the National Committee on an at-large basis after the District Tournaments.

All teams with minimum preliminary round 5-3 records, and 13 or more ballots, participated in the elimination rounds. Seeding was determined by win-loss records, total ballots, and adjusted team points after dropping high and low. The first elimination round featured a partial bracket so that sixteen teams remained after its conclusion, a format that the National Committee enacted for the 1987 NDT. Four subsequent elimination rounds culminated in the selection of one team as the national champion. Awards are given to the twenty outstanding individual speakers after the eight rounds of preliminary competition.

The 1994-95 Debate topic was: Resolved: That the federal government should substantially change rules and/or statutes governing criminal procedure in federal courts in one or more of the following areas: pretrial detention, sentencing.

Popular affirmative cases for this year's topic addressed eliminating victim impact statements, banning the death penalty and reforming the bail system. The final round analyzed the penalties for hate crimes.

Harvard, on the affirmative, argued that a lower standard of proof should be used in determining enhancements during the sentencing phase. The effect of the plan was to increase the penalties against those convicted of hate crimes.

Many debates focused on the "hot button" issue of crime. With the growing fear of crime in America, one popular negative strategy was to argue that affirmative plans would be seen as soft on crime. Other affirmatives on this year's topic included: increasing or decreasing enhancements for various crimes, prohibiting the use of psychotropic drugs on pretrial detainees, eliminating the use of 3-day continuances, and changing the ability of prosecutors to offer plea bargains.

The team pictures in this edition are primarily the camera products of the West Georgia Newspaper staff photographer. Additional pictures were loaned from the efforts of Bill Henderson of Northern Iowa, and Paul Slappey of the University of Iowa. Paul Slappey may become the unofficial "NDT photographer" after his extensive efforts to catch the flavor of the tournament. I would like to thank Rebecca Ford, Jeff Jarman, and Geri Lamer for help in program preparation, picture identification, report information and artistic impression.

1995 TOP SPEAKERS

The First Place Speaker Awards went for the second straight year to Paul Skiermont of the University of Kentucky shown here with his coaches, J.W. Patterson and Roger Solt. These awards include the Wayne Brockriede First Place Watch donated by Robert Feldhake (1976 Top Speaker) and the Travelling Tiffany Bowl naming all the NDT's Top Speakers.

Second Speaker at the 1995 NDT was Sean McCaffity of Northwestern University being presented his watch by retiring Board Member Bill Henderson.

THE 1995 FINAL ROUND

Winning debaters Sean McCaffity and Jody Terry of Northwestern University are shown with the NDT Championship Larmon Trophy, the Permanent trophy, and finalist watches. McCaffity and Terry won the NDT Championship for the second consecutive year.

Just as in 1994, the 1995 final round took place between Harvard and Northwestern. This year Northwestern MT (Sean McCaffity and Jody Terry) met Harvard AT (Stephen Andrews and Rebecca Tushnet). Northwestern moved into the final round with a 4-1 decision in the semis over the University of Texas BE (Jonathan Brody & Eric Emerson); Harvard entered the finals after a 3-2 decision over Wake Forest BH (Adrienne Brovero & John Hughes).

In the finals, Harvard was affirmative and Northwestern negative. Five judges were chosen to observe the fray: Karla Leeper, Jon Bruschke, Bill Trapani, and Josh Zive, all of Baylor University, and Gordon Stables. The Baylor Bears were not surprisingly in disagreement, and with Stables vote a 3-2 decision was reached for the negative, Northwestern, the same vote as in 1994.

The Second Place team of Stephen Andrews and Rebecca Tushnet of Harvard University. In 1994 Andrews was also in the final round, and Tushnet in the quarters. They are shown here with the Walker Travelling Second Place Trophy and the permanent award.

FIRST ROUND AT LARGE TEAM

The Wake Forest University team of Adrienne Brovero and John Hughes is shown with the Rex Copeland Memorial Trophy for the top team in first round at-large balloting. The award, named for the Samford University debater who was killed in 1990, was donated by his parents. Wake Forest received all first place votes save two; they are pictured here with coaches Ross Smith and Allan Louden.

NEW 1995 COACHING AWARD

There will be a new award at the NDT beginning in 1995, the Ovid R. Davis/West Georgia College Championship Coach Award. It is a watch similar to the finalists' watches for the coach of the winning team. It's donor, Ovid Davis is shown here with his wife Ruby and and the President of West Georgia College, Dr. Beheruz Sethna, whose remarks at the opening banquet delighted the participants.

1995 TAB ROOM

The 1995 NDT tab room found several members sufficiently recovered from 1994 to return. They included Charles Kauffman, a legal briefer and chef from Des Moines, Neil Phillips, plastics entrepreneur from Buffalo, Rich Edwards, program inventor from Baylor, and Donn W. Parson, University of Kansas, Director. Joining the staff this year were Pat Ganer of Cypress College, a veteran of NDT tab rooms, and Erik Doxtader, a soon-to-be Tar Heel.

State-of-the-Art Ballot retrieval system is demonstrated by genial host, Chester Gibson.

Rich Edwards attempts to reason with his invention (Hal II) when it announced before Round 8, "This round cannot be paired with current assumptions."
