

27th
National Debate
Tournament

Hosted by the United States Naval Academy
Annapolis, Maryland

8-9 April 1973

Sponsored by the American Forensic Association. Financially supported by the Ford Motor Company.

To All Participants in the 27th National Debate Tournament:

On behalf of the American Forensic Association, it is a pleasure to congratulate all participants in this year's NDT and reiterate the pride the Association takes in sponsoring this event. As debaters qualifying, you join a distinguished list of NDT alumni who have by their subsequent success in various endeavors provided proof of the value of educational debate. As coaches qualifying teams, you have demonstrated your ability to provide guidance and learning opportunities enabling your team to reach this level of achievement, and in an era referred to as the "economic depression in higher education" sustained necessary support for forensic programs. As guest judges, your presence represents the contribution you have made to the forensic community and inspired the confidence of your colleagues.

Planning and administration of the NDT requires the cooperative effort of many people for which AFA is grateful, including continuous work of standing and special committees of the Association. Special appreciation is expressed to chairpersons Professor Stan Rives of the Board of Trustees of the NDT; Professor Lucy Keele, of the NDT Committee; Professor Merwyn Hayes, Tournament Director of the NDT; Professor Phil Warken, Tournament host; and District Committee chairpersons, and committee members, and the 1973 NDT staff, plus other leaders in the forensic community for outstanding service this year. AFA is especially indebted to the U. S. Naval Academy for its generous commitment of facilities, financial resources, and cordial hosting, and to the Ford Motor Company for financial support and recognition of the value of intercollegiate debate.

The rich heritage of excellence of the National Debate Tournament, beginning in 1947 at the U. S. Military Academy and transferred to the sponsorship of the American Forensic Association in 1967, continues in 1973. May your experience this year have been a meaningful and rewarding one.

Congratulations, and best personal wishes for continuing success.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Jerry M. Anderson". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

JERRY M. ANDERSON, President
American Forensic Association

Resolved: That the Federal Government should provide a program of comprehensive medical care for all U. S. citizens.

National Debate Tournament: 1973

The Twenty-Seventh National Debate Tournament was sponsored by the American Forensic Association and the Ford Motor Company (Ford Fund). District and National committees expended much time and effort to insure that the tournament reflected the highest quality debating throughout the nation.

Sixteen teams were selected at-large by the National Debate Tournament committee on the basis of outstanding records prior to the District tournaments. Thirty-two teams representing the nine Districts were invited on the basis of their superior debating in District tournaments. Eight additional teams were selected by the National Committee on an at-large basis after the District tournaments. The speech fraternities of Delta Sigma Rho-Tau Kappa Alpha and Pi Kappa Delta contributed their outstanding teams to bring the tournament roster to a total of 62 teams.

Guest judges, recommended by their District committees and selected by the tournament director, joined coach judges accompanying the debate teams to staff three-man judging panels in each round. The criticism and evaluation thus reflected the best balance and highest standards possible.

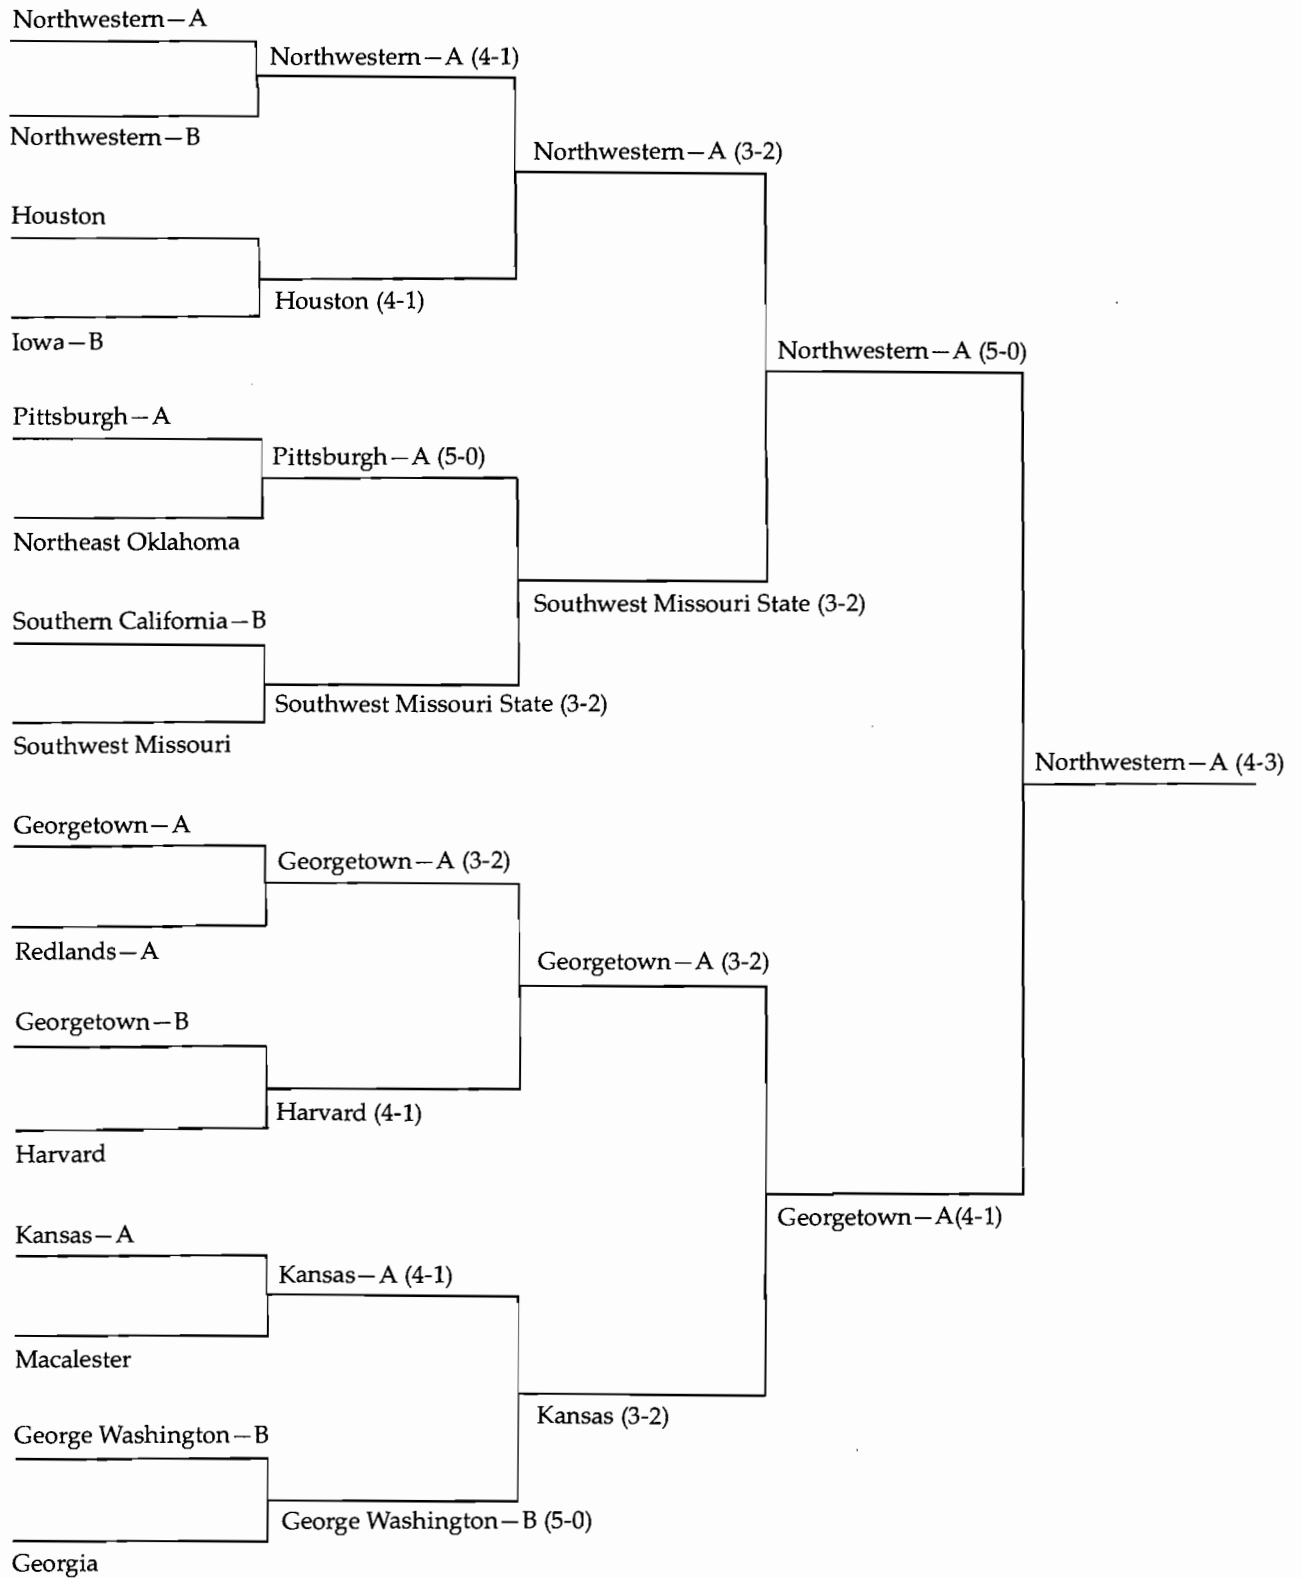

The first round was matched by a pre-set schematic based upon the order in which teams qualified for the tournaments. All other rounds were paired on the basis of like records. Any team could be paired against any other team, and any judge could hear any team except his own. On the basis of records in the eight preliminary rounds, the top sixteen teams were selected by win-loss record, total ballots, and total adjusted speaker points for elimination round competition which culminated in the selection of the national championship debate team.

Officials of the National Debate Tournament and the members of the American Forensic Association are grateful to the Ford Motor Company for the generous grant which helped make this tournament possible. We are also grateful to Sigurd S. Larmon for donating the rotating Larmon trophy, emblematic of the national debate championship, and to Mr. and Mrs. George Walker for donating the rotating second-place Walker Memorial Trophy.

We are most grateful to Phil Warlen and Lieutenant Patt Miller, our tournament hosts, for their cooperation and assistance in making the numerous tournament arrangements. And, finally, we are indebted to Admiral Mack and the U. S. Naval Academy for their support of this tournament. Without these friends of debating, the Twenty-Seventh National Debate Tournament could not have taken place.
