

32ND NATIONAL DEBATE TOURNAMENT

Hosted by:
METROPOLITAN STATE COLLEGE

April 21 to 24, 1978

THE NATIONAL DEBATE TOURNAMENT

The National Debate Tournament began at the United States Military Academy in 1947. The NDT was organized and run by West Point for its first twenty years. In the early years of the tournament, the rules were determined by West Point administration in consultation with such debate coaches as A. Craig Baird of Iowa, G. M. Musgrave of Des Moines, Alan Nichols of Southern California, E. R. Nichols of Redlands, and Joseph O'Brien of Pennsylvania State. At the first tournament in 1947, twenty-nine colleges participated in five "seeding" rounds and four elimination rounds over a three day period. Some of the primary features of the tournament were that no school in the seeding rounds would meet a school within five hundred miles of it and no coach would judge a school from his own district. Many traditions were started at West Point that year, some of which have remained to today: the "big board," announcement of round pairings, cadet escorts, the gathering of teams meeting each other under the school banner of the affirmative team, and team signs in the rooms.

In 1967, the National Debate Tournament entered a new era as the American Forensics Association assumed responsibility for the Tournament. With this new leadership, the NDT moved from West Point and has been hosted by a different school each year since. The direct control of the tournament became the responsibility of a national committee elected by those schools supporting the tournament. Over the years, the tournament has expanded to sixty-two teams with various procedures used for their selection.

In the early days of the tournament, teams were selected by the district nominating committees. This later was replaced by some form of qualifying tournament in most districts. In recent years certain large tournaments were designated as national qualifiers but today we rely on a combination of district tournaments and at-large bids. As debate has developed in the last ten years, other refinements have been added to the tournament including the ten minute rule, elaborate striking procedures, judging qualifications and critiques of the final round.

One key element of the success of the National Debate Tournament has been the support of past participants and community leaders. The early contributions of the United States Military Academy are exemplified by George Walker for whom the permanent second place Walker Memorial Trophy is named. Walker was an excellent debater for West Point who won the NDT in 1956 and placed second in 1957. The support of professional men is typified by Sigurd S. Larmon for whom the permanent first place trophy is named. Mr. Larmon's generous support of the National Debate Tournament has been one of the key reasons why the tournament has survived. In recent years financial grants from the Ford Motor Company have made it possible for the tournament to prosper. Their support is recognized in the Ford Fund watches for the first and second speakers in the tournament.

Perhaps the most important aspect of the National Debate Tournament through the years has been the people associated with it. Many key people in the speech discipline, legal profession and other fields have received communicative and argumentative training from debate and most have displayed these skills in the National Debate Tournament. These people and those in the future like them, are the best evidence of the value of our activity.

TO ALL PARTICIPANTS IN THE 32ND NATIONAL DEBATE
TOURNAMENT:

In behalf of the students, faculty and staff at Metropolitan State College we are pleased to welcome you to Denver and to serve as your host for the 32nd National Debate Tournament. Metropolitan State College has had an active Debate program and, as a comparatively young institution, we are honored by your presence at this prestigious event. It is our pleasure to serve as your host and to provide the facilities and the additional amenities to truly make this the National Debate Championship.

Each of you, in your own way, has demonstrated that you are champions by your presence at this tournament. We wish you the very best in your endeavors here and future endeavors.

I hope that sometime during the tournament, I will have the opportunity to meet and visit with each of you. Best wishes for a successful tournament and an enjoyable stay in the mile-high city.

Sincerely yours,

TOURNAMENT:

This event marks the thirty-second time that debaters, judges, and coaches have gathered for the National Debate Tournament. My own close association with the NDT (district committee member, district chairperson, NDT committee secretary, regional representative, and now AFA officer) spans only one-third of those years. During that decade I have heard many discussions pro and con about this tournament. I have seen many changes and occasionally even an improvement or two. Although there may be some moves to abolish it, my own prediction is that the NDT may survive us all.

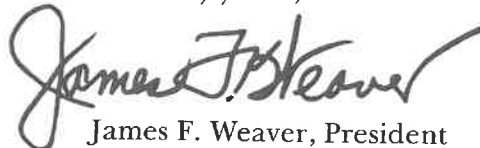

Even the mountains which provide a pleasant backdrop for the tournament, seem small when compared to the thousands of hours of work and piles of evidence represented by the one hundred twenty-four debaters in Denver this weekend. In addition to the honor you have brought to your academic institution by qualifying for this event, you have gained knowledge and valuable skills which will be of benefit during the rest of your life.

After twelve years of sponsorship the National Debate Tournament continues to represent the most visible project of the American Forensic Association. Many persons have worked unselfishly on this tournament during 1977-78. AFA is especially grateful to Professor Dick Roth and all members of the NDT committee, to Dr. Lucy M. Keele and her colleagues on the NDT Board of Trustees, to Dr. Michael Hazen and his competent tournament staff, to Professor Gary Holbrook our trusty Tournament Host, to District IX, and to the other eight district committees across the country.

We are deeply grateful to the administration of Metropolitan State for a generous commitment of facilities, financial resources, and personnel, and to the Ford Motor Company for its continuing recognition of the value of intercollegiate debate through its financial support.

Continuing a tradition we began last year we hope you will join us immediately after Round I for the AFA Reception. This is a tangible way of saying congratulations to you and all persons who have been a part of the thirty-two year history of this tournament.

Sincerely yours,

James F. Weaver, President
American Forensic Association

Congratulations from Ford Motor Company Fund to all participants in the 1977 National Debate Tournament.

It is a distinct pleasure for us to be identified with an event in which every person present has already demonstrated significant achievement.

Best wishes for a very successful tournament.

NATIONAL DEBATE TOURNAMENT: 1978

RESOLVED: THAT UNITED STATES LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES SHOULD BE GIVEN SIGNIFICANTLY GREATER FREEDOM IN THE INVESTIGATION AND/OR PROSECUTION OF FELONY CRIME

The Thirty-second National Debate Tournament is sponsored by the American Forensics Association and the Ford Motor Company Fund. District and national committees have expended much time and effort to insure that the tournament reflects the highest quality debating throughout the nation.

Sixteen teams were selected at-large by the National Debate Tournament Committee on the basis of outstanding records prior to the District tournaments. Thirty-six teams representing the nine Districts were invited on the basis of their superior debating in District tournaments. Ten additional teams were selected by the National Committee on an at-large basis after the District tournaments.

Guest judges, recommended by their District committees and selected by the tournament director, join coach-judges accompanying the debate teams to staff three-man judging panels in each round. The criticism and evaluation thus reflects the best balance and highest standards possible.

The first round is matched on a pre-set schedule based upon the order in which teams qualified for the tournament. All other odd numbered rounds are paired on the basis of direct power (high records meeting high records). All even numbered rounds are paired on the basis of high-low records within brackets. Any team could be paired against any other team, and any judge could hear any team except his own. On the basis of records in the eight preliminary rounds, the top sixteen teams are selected by win-loss records, total ballots, and total adjusted speaker points for elimination round competition which culminates in the selection of the national championship debate team. Individual speakers are recognized after the eight rounds of preliminary competition. Speaker awards are given on the basis of adjusted speaker points with high-lows being dropped up to four times.

Officials of the National Debate Tournament and the members of the American Forensic Association are grateful to the Ford Motor Company Fund for the generous grant which helped make this tournament possible. This support is recognized in the Ford Motor Fund Awards for the First and Second Speakers of the Tournament. We are also grateful to Sigurd S. Larmon for donating the rotating Larmon trophy, emblematic of the national debate championship, and to Mr. and Mrs. George Walker for donating the rotating second-place Walker Memorial Trophy.

We are most grateful to Gary Holbrook, the Metropolitan State College debaters and District Nine for their cooperation and assistance in making tournament arrangements. We are also indebted to James D. Palmer, President of Metropolitan State College; Richard G. Netzel, Vice President for Academic Affairs; Phillip Boxer, Dean of the School of Liberal Arts; Edward Schenck, Dean of Student Services; and W. Thomas Cook, Chairman of the Department of Speech at Metropolitan State College. And finally, we are grateful to Frank Sferra, Director of Forensics at Mullen High School, Coordinator of Time Keepers; Jon Walter, Associate Professor of Speech-Theatre, Construction of Big Board; Barbara Houghton, Metropolitan State College Art Department and Fredye Wright, Colorado Historical Society for their photographic work. Without their gracious support this tournament could not take place.
